

THE TASTES & FLAVOURS of THE NOVE COLLI
In the Old Tuscany
20 MAY – 29 MAY 2009

Spend 9 days in the birthplace of Marco Pantani, ride the famous Gran Fondo Nove Colli Race as well as enjoying and experiencing history as Lance Armstrong seeks to conquer the dolomites in Italy during his first appearance at the Giro D'Italia?

The tour is about experiencing:

- The live excitement in watching or taking part in One of the biggest “Gran Fondo” races in the Italian calendar, with over 10,000 riders attempting the Nove Colli which literally translated means “nine hills”(although most riders completing the course are convinced that there are more!!!)
- Riding the last 60km/70km of The Giro D’Italia Stage 13 in Florence and Stage 14 in Bologna San Luca before you see the cream of world cycling racing to the finish line including Lance Armstrong, Alberto Contador and Carlos Sastre.
- Riding at your own pace on your bike the rolling hills and high mountains dotted with villages and places full of history and charm whilst tasting and savoring the flavours of the Old Tuscany.
- Visit and tasting of the oil, wine and cheeses of famous Italy.
- Indulging Italian cappuccinos, pastas and local wines.
- And of course – leisure time to explore, take advantage and discover Cesenatico, its localities and its beautiful surroundings – where the sea and countryside coexist in magical symbiosis or simply relax and embrace the sun while lying comfortably on a deck chair by the swimming pool or on the beach.

Non riders are welcome and will be accommodated for. Our tour has been designed with no hotel changes. We will spend 9 nights in Cesenatico in the old Tuscany from the 20th of May to the 29th of May 2009; A total of 11 days: 9 nights plus 2 days travelling. Price per person sharing on a bed & breakfast basis: R 25 800 excluding flights.
